RI President John Germ's Theme: ROTARY SERVING HUMANITY SPECIAL INDUCTION ISSUE

At Tuesday's Induction meeting we saw the passing of the Presidential chain and the Club Charter from PP Bev Frieslich to newly inducted (for his second term of President) President Peter Gray

There were in excess of 60 guests present, which included PDG John Gomes (Cape town RC), President Chris Beech (Newlands RC), Hon Rotarians, Herbie Eichel and Fred Hammond, Alderman Felicity Purchase and Councillor Simon Liell-Cock; Eve and David Anderson from St John, Mary Laas and family; Past President of the club, Sue Swanepoel; Irene and Neil Butterworth and family; Linda Gray and Azzie plus their special guests - Jan Lill, Eddy Stevens, Francois Roux, and Dave & Madeleine Schuddin; Ursula McCabe had her family – Laney and Stephen Mc Cabe plus of course all the Rotarians and partners of the RC Cape of Good Hope- of special note was the presence of Pat Hughes. The evening was ably handled by the eloquent Master of Ceremonies, Andy Rumbelow and pictures taken by his daughter, Sarah.

Linda Gray also shared her birthday with husband Peter's Induction- Happy Birthday Linda!! President Bev remembered those who have passed to Higher Service, - Liz Taylor and Rob Hughes

Awards and certificates were presented to:

- * Eve Anderson from St John for their ongoing work in the community
- * Mary Laas for the Carlisle Ladies Knitting Circle who produce items for One2One and others
- * DISTINGUISHED Awards for their contribution to the Club- Alan Ferguson, Hans Zwets & Janet Holwill
- * Service Above Self Awards: Rob Hughes (posthumously) Susan O'Hagan Ward (In absentia), Kirtikant Patel and Marge Upfold
- * 100% Attendance Awards: Alan Ferguson, Kirtikant Patel, Susan O'Hagan Ward, Marge Upfold & Bev Frieslich
- * PAUL HARRIS RECOGNITION: Marge Upfold

In her Outgoing Report President Bev highlighted various aspects of the year:

- Special events we enjoyed in the year – the most notable being the opening of the Open Door Project, Celebrating Rotary's 111th Birthday with DG Geraldine Nicol and the VTT Team from the USA and the presentation of two PHF Recognitions to Richard (posthumously) and Christine Mueller; plus Awards and recognitions to Club members and the Community members
- District events we attended were: RI President Economic Conference, District Conference, District Mini Conference and raids on both Cape Town and Newlands Rotary Clubs and other seminars.

- In support of Rotary Foundation, we contributed to the EREY fund and donated the money to the Polio Plus fund; hosted the VTT team, Hosted Global Grant student, Elizabeth Benninger who has now returned to the USA and applied for a District Grant for the Elizabeth Yolisa ECD project.
- Community Projects we supported were: Driving for the elderly to the Masque theatre; Waves for Change sandwiches; Xmas parties & gifts to Sinethemba, Green curtains and Masakhane Educare; Xmas gifts to Ocean View APD and 'Onse Huisie'; One 2 One and the Rotary Family Health Day in Ocean View.
- Youth: Thanks to David Catlin we chartered three Interact Clubs; hosted STEP students, sent two students to RYLA
- Fellowship: We had loads of overseas visitors specifically from the UK and Canada; ten different fellowship occasions and a host of excellent speakers
- Special thanks to: Members of the Board, Secretary Susan O'Hagan Ward, Treasurer, Janet Holwill and also Marge Upfold and Jean Smythe who ensured that our weekly meetings ran smoothly – and of course ALL the members of the RC Cape of Good Hope
- In memorium – Sadly missed are: Liz Taylor, Rob Hughes and friends Richard Mueller & Cecil Bloch

After his induction as the 58th President of the RC Cape of Good hope, President Peter inducted our newest Rotarian, Irene Butterworth.
