Women's Day – Monday 9th August 2021

A beautiful Women's Day story of selfless giving

Mr Ricardo Stringer from the Ocean View Ishaqua Fisheries approached our Rotary Club for assistance with the distribution of the sanitary pads he had collected for the schoolgirls of Ocean View, during his recent 'Power Run' charity drive. Maughreen Ladbrook networked in the communities of Fish Hoek and Simon's Town for further donations and thanks to their generous support, they were able to hand over a large number of pads to Ocean View Secondary School and Kleinberg Primary.

Pastor Shaddie ( see in picture below) from My Father's House in Simon's Town and Clicks in Harbour Bay Mall assisted with a second collection resulting in over 500 packets being handed over to Simon's Town School and the Ocean View ELSEN School for special needs. Ricardo said he his Ishaqua team were overwhelmed by this show of support and owe a huge debt of gratitude to everyone and Rotary for their wonderful and caring community spirit. Well done to everyone!

Maughreen and the Ishaqua team will continue to collect sanitary pads on behalf of our club, for the girls who all too often stay away from school due to the lack of this most needed personal items at those times of the month

ODD and TRUE

Thanks to the RC of Sandton D9400

- Having plans sounds like a good idea until you have to put on clothes and leave the house.
- It's weird being the same age as old people.
- When I was a kid I wanted to be older, but this is not what I expected.
- Life is like a helicopter. I don't know how to operate a helicopter either.
- It's probably my age that tricks people into thinking I'm an adult.
- We can all agree that in 2016 not a single person got the answer correct to: 'Where do you see yourself 5 years from now?'
- So if a cow doesn't produce milk, is it a milk dud or an udder failure?
- If you can't think of a word say, "I forgot the English word for it." That way people will think you're bilingual instead of an idiot.
- I'm at a place in my life where errands are starting to count as going out.
- I'm at that age where my mind still thinks I'm 29, my humour suggests I'm 12, while my body mostly keeps asking if I'm sure I'm not dead yet.
- I'm getting tired of being part of a major historical event.
- I don't always go the extra mile, but when I do it's because I missed my exit.
- You don't realize how old you are until you sit on the floor and then try to get back up.
- We all get heavier as we get older, because there's a lot more information in our heads.

JA WELL NO FINE

HE: "Honey it's me. I don't want to alarm you, but I was hit by a car as I was leaving the office. Paula brought me to the hospital. They have checked me over and done some tests and some x-rays. The blow to my head was severe. Fortunately it did not cause any serious internal injury. However I have three broken ribs, a compound fracture in the left leg, and they think they may have to amputate my right foot."

HER Response: "Who is Paula?"

THE FUNCTION OF THE BISHOP

We were celebrating the 100th anniversary of our church, and several former pastors and the Bishop were in attendance.

At one point, our minister had the children gather at the altar for a talk about the importance of the day.

He began by asking,

"Does anyone know what the Bishop does?"

There was silence.

Finally, one little boy answered gravely, "He's the one you can move diagonally."
